

The Mid-Willamette Valley Community Development Partnership Board serves as the Economic Development District board of directors for the Mid-Valley Region (Marion, Polk and Yamhill counties).

Current Board Members

- Chair: John McArdle
- Vice-Chair: (Vacant)

- Commissioner Kevin Cameron, representing Marion County
- Commissioner Craig Pope, representing Polk County
- (Awaiting appointment), representing Yamhill County
- Mayor Brian Dalton, representing the City of Dallas
- Councilor Kyle Juran, representing the City of Keizer
- (Awaiting appointment), representing the City of McMinnville
- Mayor Cecilia Koontz, representing the City of Monmouth
- Councilor Denise Bacon, representing the City of Newberg
- Mayor Chuck Bennett, representing the City of Salem
- Mayor Kyle Palmer, representing the City of Silverton
- Mayor Eric Swanson, representing the City of Woodburn
- (Awaiting appointment), representing the Small Cities of Marion County
- Independence Mayor John McArdle, representing the Small Cities of Polk County
- (Awaiting appointment), representing the Small Cities of Yamhill County
- Chris Mercier, representing the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde
- (Vacant), representing Agriculture
- (Vacant), representing Construction
- (Vacant), representing Financial Institutions
- (Vacant), representing Food Processing
- (Vacant), representing Forestry & Wood Products
- (Vacant), representing Labor
- (Vacant), representing Manufacturing
- (Vacant), representing Minority Entrepreneurs
- (Vacant), representing MWACT/Natural Resources
- Michael de Blasi, representing Professions
- (Vacant), representing Small Business
- (Vacant), representing Spanish Speaking Persons (Minority Groups)
- Kim Parker Llerenas, Willamette Workforce Partnership, representing Un/Underemployed

- Alicia Bonesteele, Salem Electric, representing Utilities

View PDF